

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

May 25, 2016

Ms. Jessica Dean
Framingham, Massachusetts

Dear Jessica:

Michelle and I are delighted to send our heartfelt congratulations on your graduation.

In your achievement, I see not only the culmination of years of hard work, but also a unique piece of the mosaic you form with students from the class of 2016 across our Nation. Together, you embody an America that finds unity in its diversity, draws strength from a spirit of common purpose, and aspires to reach the breakthroughs of tomorrow. Unencumbered by what has been and unafraid of new frontiers, you remind us that what has kept our country moving forward through everything we have experienced—what defines us above all—has always been our unwavering belief in the possibilities of the future.

Congratulations, again, on this accomplishment. As you reflect on the efforts that brought you to this moment and look toward all that lies ahead, know that your President is proud of you and inspired by your generation.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be Barack Obama's signature, written in a cursive style.